

Science Review Guide Chapter 4

ocean- a large bottle of salt water.

pollution- waste that harms land ,
water or air.

pond- a body of fresh water that stays
in one place.

recycle- waste that can be made into new things and used again.

stream- a moving body of fresh water.

Salmon live in the stream.

Plankton are part of the ocean's food
web.

How do you care for air? Riding bikes
and walking.

How do you care for the water? By picking up trash

How do you care for the land? Planting trees

Name 2 things you could recycle:

. a.coke cans

- . b.water bottles
- . c.paper
- . d.juice boxes

A group of several food chains that are connected together is a food web.

A fresh water habitat that stays in one place is a pond.